

Sunflower SunPower Kids Holiday Cheer

What do you give the person that has everything?

This holiday season, give a gift that keeps on giving: Stocking stuffers that will stuff backpacks and diaper bags for homeless children and teens living on Nicaragua's streets

With $25 you can send, in someone's name, a backpack filled with school supplies, medicine, Christmas toys, and basic self care items like toothpaste and shampoo, to an impoverished, homeless child living on Nicaragua's streets

With $25 you can send, in someone's name, a diaper bag filled with everything that a new teen mom needs (including a gift certificate to parenting classes and a sustainable vocations program in knitting and tailoring) to keep her newborn and thereby help to end the cycles of child abandonment that create child homelessness and prostitution in Nicaragua.

With each $25 donation, you will receive a greeting card announcing your donation made in the name of the person that will receive your gift that keeps on giving.

There are more than 600,000 children living below the poverty line in Nicaragua.

Help us to make a difference for some of those children this Christmas season, by reaching our goal to stuff 350 backpacks and 80 diaper bags ($11,000). Instead of giving and getting more stuff, give a stocking stuffer that stuffs backpacks and diaper bags as an investment in a better future for the entire human family.

"Give of yourself, give as much as you can, and you can always, always give something, even if it is only kindness. Go ahead, keep it up, go on giving. No one has ever become poor from giving....If everyone were to do this, then in a few generations we would not need to pity the beggar children anymore because they would not exist."

-Anne Frank

"The toys and blocks with which we play
Are houses lands and gold.
Their values quickly pass away,
As does a tale that's told.

But kindly gracious deeds abide,
Their wealth will not depart:
Their flowers of joy are multiplied
In gardens of the heart."

Charles Russell Wakely
